

How to REALLY change the world

If every child had a Wiki space that carried with them throughout their gradeschool years, the children can change the world in ways we cannot even fathom...

Editor Note: So tried to be sporty and support GoogleDocs in the following presentation, but the layout is not that fresh. I love the idea of GoogleDocs - but without powerful flexibility in the layouts and presentation, you are really limited. Next time, back to PPT or something more sophisticated until this improves by Google. Need clean/polished presentation!
